

As a citizen who is annoyed by various scam calls and telemarketing callers I don't think that anyone should get rid of the State Do Not Call List. I think the list should be defined even more.